Little Dormice have been enjoying being active and developing their language through play. They have made a shark pond and painted a canoe.

Dormice have been reading aloud to some of the Little Dormice children today.

Fallow Deer have been drawing polygons in maths.

Woodpeckers have been busy working on writing stories and letters this week with some fantastic results.

Red Squirrels have been creating collages of rivers linked to their geography topic wild waters.

Congratulations to Mille who has been awarded gymnast of the month at her gymnastics club.
