

British Horse Society Visit

October 2021

We were really pleased to meet Alan and Des who work for the British Horse Society. They came in to talk to us about staying safe on the roads, especially when there are horse riders on them. We all received a lovely red rosette and a folder of goodies to help remind us of what we had learnt.

