

Design work

December 2021

Our Design topic this term has been to design and make a juggling ball. We tested different fillings to decide which we thought was best suited to the design criteria. Once we had filled our socks we then had to sew them up to make sure that the filling stayed inside. Here's some pictures of our creations.

