

Anglo-Saxon Village building

Children in Key Stage 2 had a great time building model Anglo-Saxon villages out of junk. We were super impressed with how prepared some children were and how much time and effort had gone into sourcing materials. We all managed to create our own villages in different styles. Here's some pictures of us as we were busy creating and building, plus a few of our final models.

