

Let's go fly a kite!

Design Technology work Spring 2022

The children have worked hard to design and make their own kites and had a great time trying them out. We had made prototype delta kites previously, some children kept the same design, others went for something completely different. Here's some pictures of us with our kites and having a go at flying them.

