

Mr Whoops' Juggling Muddle!

Clumsy Mr Whoops has been juggling with this week's -ity suffix words and he's got in a real juggling muddle! Could you help him to unjumble each word using the clues to help?

bending easily without breaking  _____	never-ending time  _____	being able to see or be seen  _____	Something that may happen  _____
a group of people living in the same place  _____	possessing the skill to do something  _____	the ability to understand what other people need  _____	a strong desire to know something  _____

Challenge Task

Which two spelling words hasn't Mr Whoops muddled up? Could you use each of them in separate sentences that contain a relative clause?

Mr Whoops' Juggling Muddle Answers

bending easily without breaking flexibility

never-ending time

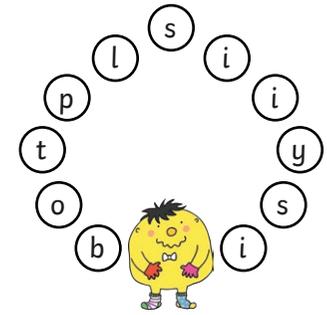

eternity

being able to see or be seen visibility

Something that may happen possibility

a group of people living in the same place community possessing the skill to do something ability

the ability to understand what other people need sensitivity

a strong desire to know something curiosity

Challenge Task

Which two spelling words hasn't Mr Whoops muddled up? Could you use each of them in separate sentences that contain a relative clause?

Accept TWO relative cause sentences that contain 'captivity' and 'activity'.

e.g. 'Baloo, who is an endangered panda, has been hand-reared in captivity.' & 'The cub scout troop, who were on a camping trip, took part in an orienteering activity.'