This is a summary of how our school delivers music education to all our pupils across three areas – curriculum music, co-curricular provision and musical experiences – and what changes we are planning in future years. This information is to help pupils and parents or carers understand what our school offers and who we work with to support our pupils' music education.

Part A: Curriculum music

This is about what we teach in lesson time, how much time is spent teaching music and any music qualifications or awards that pupils can achieve.

At Woodside Primary School, our music curriculum aims to inspire creativity, self-expression; to encourage our children on their musical journeys as well as giving them opportunities to connect with others. Our curriculum is knowledge based and designed to have an impact on long term memory. We hope to foster a life- long love of music by exposing them to diverse musical experiences and igniting a passion for music. By listening and responding to different musical styles, finding their voices as singers, performers and as composers, all will enable them to become confident, reflective musicians. The long term plans for each class can be

We currently use the Charanga scheme of learning for our music teaching throughout school. This is a comprehensive scheme that covers all elements of the music curriculum. Some additional units have been prepared for KS1 linked to topics and aimed at developing more exploration of percussion instruments. In class 3 pupils also have 10 weeks whole class ensemble tuition each year. Each class completes 3 charanga units per year, each unit comprises six, hour long sessions. The music curriculum ensures children sing, listen, play, perform and evaluate. This is embedded in the classroom activities as well as our weekly whole school singing session, various concerts and performances and the learning of instruments. Teachers deliver music following the Charanga programme, designed specifically for the teaching of music in primary schools. Using this resource, teachers are able to produce inclusive lessons for all children to access the musical curriculum in a fun and engaging way, further promoting a love of learning. Charanga lessons are planned in sequences to provide children with the opportunities to review, remember, deepen and apply their understanding. The elements of music are taught in classroom lessons so that children are able to use some of the language of music to dissect it, and understand how it is made, played, appreciated and analysed. In the classroom, children learn how to play the glockenspiel, and a variety of percussion instruments. Playing various instruments enables children to use a range of methods to create notes, as well as how to read basic music notation. They also learn how to compose, focusing on different dimensions of music, which in turn feeds their understanding when listening, playing, or analysing music. Composing or performing using body percussion and vocal sounds is also part of the curriculum, which develops the understanding of musical elements without the added complexity of an instrument.

Every year Year 3/4 children have the opportunity to learn an instrument through Gloucestershire Music's Whole Class Ensemble programme (WCET). This has included violins, ukulele and flute. This year a number of PP pupils have been given the opportunity to continue individual instrument lessons. This year KS2 pupils also had the opportunity to take part in "Young Voices

Part B: Extracurricular music

This is about opportunities for pupils to sing and play music, outside of lesson time, including choirs, ensembles and bands, and how pupils can make progress in music beyond the core curriculum.
