

WHAT MAKES SOME PLACES SACRED TO BELIEVERS?– Y1 AND Y2 RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Key Vocabulary

Sacred	Special, set apart, connected to God
Church	A Christian place of worship
Mosque	A Muslim place of worship
Synagogue	A Jewish place of worship
Bible	The Christian holy book
Qu'ran	The Muslim holy book
Torah	The Jewish holy scrolls

Christians read the Bible as part of their worship.

These churches can be found in Ruardean. Christians regularly meet there to worship and sing songs to God, read the Bible, meet together and pray.

This is Gloucester Cathedral. A cathedral is a large church.

These buildings are mosques. The one on the left can be found in Gloucester. Muslims regularly meet there to worship Allah, read the Qu'ran, meet together and pray.

Jewish people read the Torah scrolls as part of their worship.

These buildings are synagogues. The one on the right can be found in Cheltenham. Jewish people meet there regularly to worship God, read the Torah, meet together and pray.

Sacred places can be indoor or outdoor. They are not always a building!

Muslims read the Qu'ran as part of their worship.