

What influence does believing in God as Trinity have on Christian worldviews? RED SQUIRREL CLASS

In general, Christians are monotheists, believing in one God.

Christian tradition understands God in terms of the Trinity; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The nature of the Trinity and its persons are set out in the Apostles' Creed.

The Trinity: The Father

- God the Father is seen as the creator of the world.
- He is loving, powerful, and caring.
- The Father represents God's authority and protection.

The Trinity: The Son (Jesus)

- Christians believe Jesus is the Son of God and God in human form.
- He lived a perfect life, taught people about love and forgiveness, and performed miracles.

The Trinity: The Holy Spirit

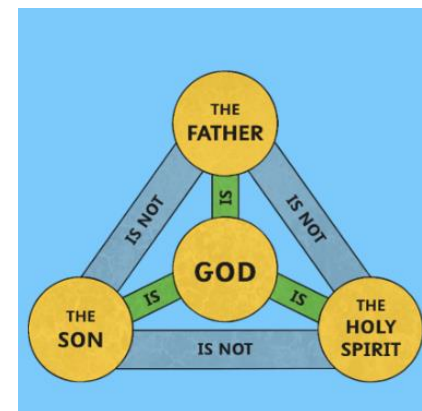

- The Holy Spirit is believed to guide, comfort, and inspire Christians.
- Described as God's presence in the world today.
- Associated with symbols like a dove, wind, or fire.

Key Vocabulary

Faith	strong belief or trust in something or someone, especially without proof
monotheist	the belief that there is only one GOD
Trinity T	The Christian belief that God is one being in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
The Father	The creator and sustainer of the universe; represents God's power and care.
The Son	Jesus Christ, believed to be God incarnate (God in human form).
The Holy Spirit	God's presence and power active in the world today.
Incarnation	The belief that God became human in the form of Jesus.
Resurrection	The belief that Jesus rose from the dead three days after his crucifixion.
Saints	Holy people recognised for their closeness to God and their impact on Christianity

What is a belief?

- A belief is an idea accepted as true by an individual or group.
- Beliefs can be religious (e.g. belief in God) or nonreligious (e.g. belief in equality).
- Religious beliefs often guide how people live their lives

Links to previous learning:

Why do people believe in God?
(Y5/6)