invade	To raid or enter another area as an enemy.
Magna Carta	A list of promises that would make England a safer and fairer place to live.
monarch	A person who rules over a place, usually a king or queen rebels	A group of people who disobey or fight against a government.
reign	To rule over a country as the monarch.
revolt	To join with others to fight against the government

William the Conqueror – reigned 1066-1087

- William believed that when King Edward died, he would be named as the next King of England.
- Edward announced Harold Godwinson as the next King and William was not happy.
- William invaded England from France in order to defeat Harold in battle and become King.
- William used fear to control the people of England and ordered them to pay huge taxes.

King John – reigned 1199-1216

- King John charged the English people high taxes so he could afford more weapons and soldiers for battles.
- The people got so fed up with this that they began to revolt.
- The rebels took control of London and made King John approve Magna Carta.

King Henry VIII – reigned 1491-1547

While he was King, Henry wanted the next monarch to be male so that England would be in the strongest hands (he believed a daughter would not be clever enough to keep the peace). His first two wives gave birth to daughters and it wasn't until he married Jane Seymour that he finally got a son.
